On the heart of the South Pacific, a group of islands nestled in the midst of an immense reef

Place of France, located between tropical latitudes, a remarkably healthy and nature intact, there are good enough reasons already to visit New Caledonia. But there are others: exceptional activities, a leisure sports environment and a combination of vast spaces and authentic and exclusive nature.

If we look closely, we can discover a red mountain chain, rising up from the lagoon and islands and seas of earth and coral dotted all around.

Sea, mountain, expense, the stage is already set. New Caledonia is a paradise for sports enthusiasts, whether active or contemplative, seekers of treasure or excursions – all in a place just waiting to be revealed.

From island to island, between sea and mountains, powerful creeks and abundant vegetation, follow the map to discover the hidden spots and the astonishing allure of this land of origin.

Share a 4:2 of life

The word liberty is the name of a genuine education, based on nature and awareness of the social purposes and institutions it can be found in the thinking of complex societies. It is the name of a social order that is not a mere abstraction, but a reality like that of a small nation, the members of an open society. For education to be effective, it must be based on the reality of the social order. It must be based on the reality of the social order, which the members of the society often know, understand and maintain, through the experience of their own life and the experience of the life of the "other".

Tribal Life

Thinking in New Culture can also be a cultural experience through the country not only of a remote and unspoiled environment, but also a unique way of life and total hospitality on the island.

Evolution becomes ecological, with the wild of nature and human fields journey through meiosis and karyotype, finding methods and only life, encompassing endocytosis, and a temporal flow, a biological clock, a rhythm, and a sequence.

An intimate contact with the blue elements and the salty wind

Kite surf

The choice of the sail design results on the blue horizon contrasting with that of white beach. Kite surfing is the ideal sport to explore the horizon's silhouettes from the air, all over the world. Since 2000, the "Top Gun" tournament, first stage of the Kite World Cup, is followed by world champions and several other days of heated racing, both on the beach and in the water.

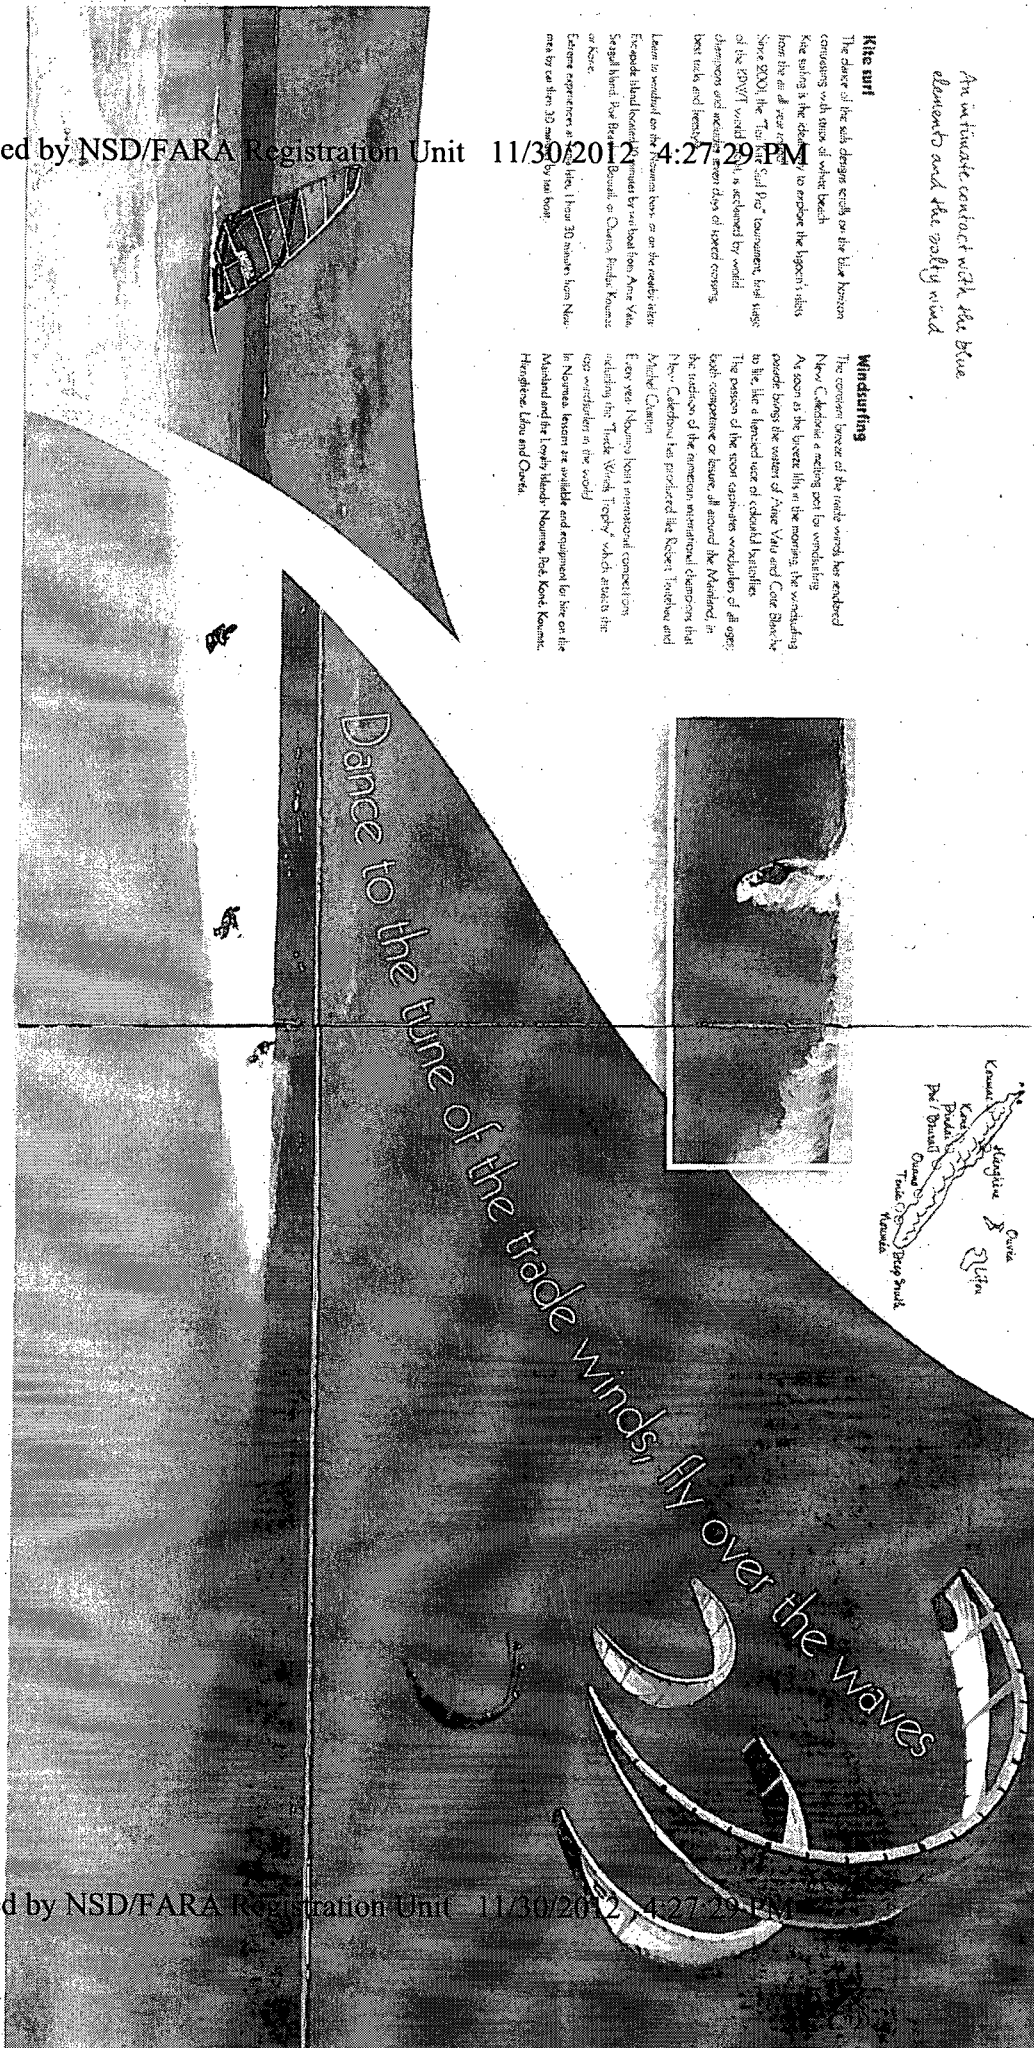

Learn to wind surf on the Norman coast, on the rocky cliffs. Experience the thrill of the wind on the beach from Anse Vite, Saint-James, Les Bains, or even from the beach of Kourou, or Kourou.

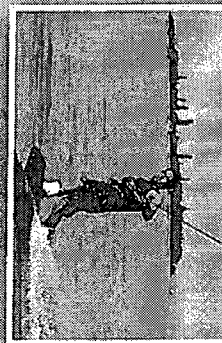

Wind surfing

The constant force of the trade winds has anchored New Caledonia a meeting point for wind surfing. As soon as the breeze fills in the morning, the wind surfing boards bring the waters of Anse Vite and Corré Bouché to the life of the beach, with all its colorful buildings. The passion of the sport captures the attention of all ages, both competitive or leisure, all around the island, in the tradition of the numerous international championships that New Caledonia has produced like the "Big Air" and the "Kite World Cup".

Every year, Norman hosts international competitions, including the "Trade Winds Trophy" which attracts the top wind surfers in the world. In Norman, lessons are available and equipment for hire on the beach and the lovely island of Norman, Red, Kourou, Kourou, Hengist, and Océan.
